

Art Happens Everywhere!

Yes, art is happening everywhere, here and there under festive white tents and outdoors in working cabanas. Stroll the two-acre sculpture garden sponsored by Zuva Gallery exhibiting 25 African stone sculptures. Garden attractions, sponsored by Pathways Nursery, include numerous whispering water fountains, Koi pond and waterfall, hummingbird and butterfly garden, educational botanical cacti surroundings, roses, birds and more. Watch the artists passionately working. They will be:

- Painting, sketching in pen & inks, pastels, charcoals and batiks.
- Carving, polishing and staining fine woods.
- Sculpting, chipping and shaping unique and rare stones.
- Designing and constructing clay mosaic sculptures.
- Weaving, sculpting and constructing original jewelry.
- Designing and welding metal, copper and glass.
- Sculpting clay and porcelain works of art.
- Etching, molding, coloring, soldering and fusing glass.
- Sculpting and patina finishing of bronzes.
- Cutting, painting, etching and assembling gourds.

Where is all this art happening? At the Arizona Fine Art EXPO! And what attracts all these artists? The Thunderbird Artists' reputation for producing award-winning fine art and wine festivals and the quality reputation of the EXPO! This gathering of world-class artists come from throughout the United States and abroad just to participate in this event. The artists like the idea of producing their fine art among fellow great artists, selling their artwork, the beautiful gallery setting and handsome 2 acre Sculpture Garden. Artists move here for 3 months and travel from throughout the state of Arizona, California, Utah, Florida, Minnesota, Indiana, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, Pennsylvania, Iowa, Washington, Texas, Kansas, Oregon, Missouri, New York, Mexico and Africa.

There are lots to see, enjoy or take part in at the EXPO. Great things happen like art classes, workshops, book signing events, weekend entertainers, wine tasting, chef demonstrations and more. To see the line up of events check out our website at www.ArizonaFineArtEXPO.com or call 480-837-7163.
