6th Annual FOUNTAIN HILLS FINE ART & WINE AFFAIRE

WHEN: March 19th, 20th & 21st, 2010

HOURS: 10am to 5pm each day

WHERE: 16810 E. Avenue of the Fountains in Fountain Hills, Arizona 85268.
(On Avenue of the Fountains between La Montana and Saguaro Blvd.)

ADMISSION: $3 (18 years and up) for all non-Fountain Hills residents

PARKING: Free

WHO: Over 125 nationally acclaimed and award-winning fine artisans from throughout the United States and abroad with over 5,000 original pieces of fine art on display for the enjoyment and/or purchase of patrons.

FEATURED ARTIST: Master Oil painting duo, David Richey Johnsen and Thomas Elmo Williams. Their pieces combine soft tones and subtle elements to depict city and industrial life.

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT: Jeffery Michael, musician and composer, performing ethnic jazz on the piano, Mark Maxwell's soothing smooth jazz on the saxophone and others to be announced.

WINE TASTING: For $10, patrons will receive an engraved keepsake wineglass with six sampling tickets. The participating wineries include Alcantara Vineyards, Cape of Good Hope, Jerome Winery, Kokopelli, Page Springs Vineyards & Cellars and Schlossadler International Wines, who will all have a broad array of fine wines for patrons sampling pleasures.

FOOD: In addition to the many local restaurants and cafes, patrons can enjoy cuisine by Baijo Mexican Grill, Coonridge Goat Cheese, Fine Wine Jellies and Pastamore'. For one's sweet tooth, Oh Fudge! will be making fudge on a marble slab to really tempt the taste buds.
