4th Annual FOUNTAIN HILLS FINE ART & WINE AFFAIRE

WHEN: March 21st, 22nd & 23rd, 2008

HOURS: 10am to 5pm each day

WHERE: 16774 Avenue of the Fountains in Fountain Hills, Arizona 85268. (On Avenue of the Fountains, between La Montana and Saguaro Blvd.)

ADMISSION: $2 (18 years and up) for all non-Fountain Hills residents

PARKING: Free

WHO: The festival will present nationally acclaimed and award-winning fine artisans from throughout the United States and abroad. Paintings in all mediums and subjects will be on display, along with bronze, clay, glass, wood, mixed media and metal sculptures, photography, jewelry and much more!

FEATURED ARTIST: Gary Johnson, metal sculptor. Gary focuses on wildlife for his pieces and gets his inspiration from nature. He captures the beauty, quality, and genuineness of his subjects, which is portrayed in detail in his lifelike sculptures.

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT: Featuring Trinidad Calypso Band playing a combination of Caribbean and American music, Wind Rodriguez with his Native American Cedar Flute, composer/pianist Michael Jeffrey and jazz group Morpheus Music.

WINE TASTING: For $10, patrons will receive an engraved keepsake wineglass with six sampling tickets. A International Wines, Grapeables, Kokopelli Winery, Page Springs Cellars, and AZ Wine Company will have a broad array of fine wines for patrons sampling pleasures.

FOOD: In addition to the many surrounding restaurants, patrons can enjoy cuisine by Island Noodles, the Orange Place and B. International with Greek food. For one's sweet tooth, Oh Fudge! will be making fudge on a marble slab to really tempt the taste buds.
