World-Class Performers to Descend on Arizona for the Super Bowl ... and the Arizona Fine Art EXPO

What does the Super Bowl and Arizona Fine Art EXPO have in common?
Both are being held in Arizona during February and will showcase winners.

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. – Oct. 21, 2007 – Thunderbird Artists is a champion when it comes to producing top-quality fine art events, and the Arizona Fine Art EXPO is no exception.

Scheduled for Jan. 10 – March 23, 2008, the Arizona Fine Art EXPO will showcase 115 champion (Super Bowl quality) artists working in a studio environment, highlighted by a gallery-setting backdrop. Each artist's studio will be nestled under 43,000 square feet of festive white tents on Scottsdale and Jomax Roads (26540 N. Scottsdale Rd., Scottsdale, AZ 85255).

In addition to enjoying magnificent bronzes, copper, clay, stone and metal sculptures positioned in the handsome Sculpture Garden, patrons can watch artists welding, fusing glass, carving and etching stone, patina finishing, plein air painting and more in outdoor cabanas. Indoors, world-class artists are also on display, passionately painting; sketching in pen & ink; creating in pastels; sculpting wood, clay and acrylics; assembling mixed media on canvas; and welding, sculpting and designing jewelry.

During the past three years, the EXPO received rave reviews from the attending patrons. The 2008 unveiling is sure to be another smashing success and captivating experience. Entertainment this year includes NAMY award-winning Brule' and his band Airo; award-winning hoop dancer Brian Hammill; Mexican fiesta dancing; Paul McDermand performing on his steel drums and marimbas; chefs' demonstrations; wine tastings; and more.

The Arizona Fine Art EXPO is all about providing an ambiance like none other that will be forever remembered.

The event combines the aspects of a juried fine art festival, the elements of a gallery and the inner-workings of an artist's studio. The result is a unique celebration of art that functions as an educational tool for the children and art enthusiasts. The EXPO takes place on the southeast corner of Jomax and Scottsdale Roads, Scottsdale, Ariz. A season pass is $7 and $6 for seniors and military. Children under 12 are free. Parking is also free.
